

2023 GA/Gam-Anon
International Conference

Everyone has a story to tell. What's yours?

Chicagoland Gambler's Anonymous is collecting your quotes, poems, stories and original digital art work that depicts your Gambler's Anonymous/Gam-Anon recovery journey--if chosen, your submission will be published in the 2023 International Conference Booklet during the conference being held in Chicago, IL from November 17-19, 2023.

Questions or submissions can be emailed to 2023ConferenceBooklet@gmail.com

Please include with your communication:

- ✓ Your first name, last initial.
- ✓ Your GA/Gam-Anon Home Meeting (city, state, country).
- ✓ Your telephone number and email address so we can contact you.

Super Important Stuff!

With your content, you agree to the following:

- Your submission must be received by September 1, 2023, for consideration.
- Your content may be used in print and/or electronic media at the 2023 International GA/Gam-Anon Conference.
- If published, your submission may be edited/revised for clarity, and formatted for print and/or electronic publication.
- You warrant that you are the sole owner of all rights to the submission, and that the content does not infringe or violate any copyright, right of privacy or any other right of any third party.
- If you submit something from a third party you acknowledge and take full responsibility that you have obtained authorization to submit their work and indicate content ownership with your submission.
- Unless you're attending the conference you will not receive a print copy of the booklet but we will send you a digital copy to the provided email.

Thank you! We will acknowledge receipt of all submissions within 5-7 days--if your material is selected, we will let you know within 30 days of the conference.
